

*Boston Pan African Forum
(BPAF) 8th Annual Fall Reception*

Friday, October 26, 2018

Time: 4:00pm – 8:00pm

“Returning to the Source: The Future of Reparations and Restorative Justice for Afrikan Enslavement”: Report to the Community

Place: University of Massachusetts Boston
Snowden Auditorium, Wheatley Hall, 1st Fl
100 Morrissey Blvd, Boston, MA

4:00 – 5:00 Community Reception

5:00 – 5:10 Welcome: Prof. Jemadari Kamara, Director, Centre for African, Caribbean & Community Development, UMass/Boston

5:10 – 5:20 Introductions: Prof. Joyce Hope Scott, President, BPAF

5:30 – 6:15 PROGRAM:

Video Screening of Porto-Novo, Bénin, International Conference on Reparations and Restorative Justice: featuring Address by CARICOM Chair, Sir Hilary Beckles, West African Kings & Others

6:15 – 7:00 Panel: Implications for the Diaspora: Prof. Jemadari Kamari, UMass/Boston, Prof. Joyce Hope Scott, Boston University & BPAF, Ms. Yvette Modestin, Founder & Director of Encuentro Diaspora Afro, Mr. Al Hope /Vice Pres. Hope for Africa
Audience Participation, Questions & Answers

7:00 – 8:00 African Food, Music, Networking with Pan-Africanists, Activists & Others

FREE: Come Enjoy Great Discussion, Networking, Food, Music, Collegiality

(There is a $6 charge for the convenient on-campus parking. The nearest MBTA T-stop is the Red-Line U-Mass/JFK Library stop. A free, convenient shuttle bus connects the T-stop and the Student Center, which is very near the Wheatley Hall)

For further information and to RSVP contact 617-287-7138

Annual Co-Sponsors: University of Massachusetts Boston Center for African, Caribbean and Community Development, Boston Pan-African Forum, Boston University African Studies Center, and Encuentro Diaspora Afro.

Anyone requiring disability-related accommodations in order to fully participate in this event should go to www.ada.umb and complete the request form.