

Boston Pan African Forum
9th Annual Fall Pan African Reception:
“Transatlantic Dimensions of the Black Arts Movement”
October 25, 2019. UMass/Boston.
Snowden Auditorium, Wheatley Hall, 1st Floor
FREE: Come Enjoy Great Discussion, Networking, Food, Music, Collegiality

Featuring Distinguished Guest: Mr. Kalidou Kasse

Renowned Sénégalese Master Artist

Kalidou Kasse is an internationally-known plastic artist, creator of tapestries and objects in cardboard, founder and director of the “Ateliers du Sahel” gallery, president of the Senegalese Committee of the International Association of Plastic Arts and delegate for UNESCO. Kalidou is nicknamed « The brush of the Sahel”; “where ideas and messages are delivered on canvases.”

PROGRAM

Sign-In and Reception: 4:30pm - 5:00pm
Ancestral Libations: Askia Toure 5:00 -5:10 PM
Welcome: Dr. Joyce Hope Scott, Pres. BPAF 5:10 – 5:15
Introduction of Speaker: Dr. Joyce Hope Scott
Distinguished Guest: Mr. Kalidou Kasse: 5:15pm – 6:00 PM
Roundtable with Local Artists: 6:00 – 6:45
Dr. Tony Van Der Meer, Moderator
Panelists: Mr. Barry Gaither, Ms. Gloretta Baynes, Mr. Napoleon Jones-Henderson, Ms. L’Merchie Frazier
Question & Answer Period: 6:45 – 7:15 PM
Great African Food, Music, & Networking: 7:15 – 8:15 PM

The Receptions Annual Co-Sponsors are: University of Massachusetts Boston Center for African, Caribbean and Community Development, Boston Pan-African Forum, Boston University African Studies Center, West Africa Research Association and Encuentro Diaspora Afro.

Anyone requiring disability-related accommodations in order to fully participate in this event should go to www.ada.umb and complete the request form.